

200 Years On

A debate on the commemoration of the abolition of transatlantic slave trade

Monday 22nd January

2007 will be a year of commemoration of the abolition of transatlantic slavery. ULU is hosting a debate with a distinguished panel of speakers and an opportunity for you to debate issues with topics including,

Pan-Afrikan reparations:

A cause to unite humanity for global justice African versus western democracy, abolitionists and race equality

Panel:

Chair: Cllr Patrick Vernon - founder of Every Generation Media and the 100 great Black Britons campaign

Kofi Klu - joint coordinator for Rendezvous of victory (ROV).

Benny Dembitzer - specialist in African economic issues

Dr. Henrice Altink - is a historian working on pro- and antislavery thought and teaches at York University.

Venue: University of London Union, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HY, The Venue Refreshments will be served.

Time: Slavery exhibition 5.30pm, Debate: 6.30pm

Email Sanchia Smithson, ULU Race Equality Officer to reserve your place at sanchia46@gmail.com

www.ULU.co.uk