Johnny Delaney

Iola Ynyr

'Discrimination against Gypsies and Travellers appears to be the last 'respectable' form of racism in Britain'.

Sir Trevor Phillips, Chairman for the Commission for Racial Equality.

Saif stori Johnny fel atgof barhaus o'r ffordd y gall y rhagfarnau hiliol hynny sy'n dal i oresi yn ein cymdeithas heddiw arwain at drais di-feddwl a cholli bywyd yn ddi-angen.

Johnny's story is a lasting reminder of how the racial intolerances which still prevail in today's society can lead to acts of mindless violence and the consequent sheer waste of life.

Hoffai Cwmni'r Frân Wen ddiolch i deulu'r Delaney's am eu caniatad i rannu stori Johnny ac am eu cefnogaeth a'u parodrwyd i gynorthwyo ym hobb ffordd positif.

Cwmni'r Frân Wen wish to thank the Delaney family for allowing us to share Johnny's story and for their support and willingness to assist us at all times.
