
PUBLICATIONS CATALOGUE

Institute of Race Relations

2 – 6 Leeke Street

London

WC1X 9HS

Tel: + 44 (0) 20 7837 0041

Fax: + 44 (0) 20 7278 0623

Web: www.irr.org.uk

Email: info@irr.org.uk

MULTIMEDIA RESOURCES

HomeBeats: Struggles for Racial Justice

A multimedia CD-ROM for Windows and Macintosh computers

HomeBeats is a multimedia journey through time, from Africa, the Caribbean and Asia, to the making of modern Britain. The first CD-ROM on racism and the black presence in Britain, it fuses music, graphics, video, text and animation into a stunning voyage of personal and historical discovery for every user. Through a series of fully interlinked sections – Memories, Places, People, Visions, Images – HomeBeats makes the links between past and present accessible to young people in a way possible in no other medium. It covers the history of the struggle for racial justice, tracing the connections between slavery, the colonial experience and modern day racism. The story of how black communities were built in the UK is told through the stories of eight locations in Britain: Birmingham, Bradford, Brixton, the East End of London, Liverpool, Newham, Notting Hill, and Southall. Easy and fun to use, with a soundtrack by Asian Dub Foundation, HomeBeats lets you learn at your own pace.

These are just some of the topics: ■ Sugar and slavery ■ India's freedom struggle ■ The scramble for Africa ■ The Civil Rights movement ■ Refugees and asylum-seekers ■ Images of black people ■ Fascism in Europe ■ Biographies and portraits of 50 key individuals from John Archer, the first black mayor in Britain, to Angela Davis, a leader of the US Black Power movement. Other features: ■ Quiz game ■ Search facility ■ Fully indexed ■ 200,000 words of text articles ■ Glossary of keywords ■ Over 1 hour of audio material ■ Hundreds of photographs ■ Over 20 video clips. HomeBeats is suitable for ages 13 and upwards, for use in schools, colleges and youth centres or at home. It meets requirements for key stages 3 and 4 of the National Curriculum, as well as for post-16 education. Produced to the highest professional and educational standards, HomeBeats' in-depth, comprehensive coverage makes it ideal for adult training courses too. System requirements: Windows 3.1/95/98/2000/NT4/XP or Mac OS 7/8/9 or OS X in classic mode ■ 16Mb RAM memory ■ 10Mb hard disk free space ■ Any Pentium, PowerPC or faster processor ■ CD-ROM drive ■ VGA or better display with at least 256 colours and a sound card.

£50 (single user licence and study pack), £100 (Multi user school licence and study pack. Prices for CD ROM include postage.

Struggles for Black Community

Four films by Colin Prescod on one DVD

These films tell the story of settlement and struggle of Asians and African-Caribbeans in four locations – Cardiff, Southall, Notting Hill, Leicester – from the vantage point of local participants. Using original interviews, photographic and archival material, each portrays the particular strengths of one area and a particular aspect of historical Black struggle.

Tiger Bay is my Home shows that in 19th century Cardiff as in other ports Black communities began with Black colonial seamen. The Tiger Bay community faced official, as well as everyday physical harassment, which culminated in race riots in 1919 and a scheme for repatriation. But the community stood its ground, and so the people of Butetown lived through the Depression of the 1930s, and many of them served and died in world War Two. ■ A Town Under Siege focuses on how Southall organised to resist racist and fascist attacks between 1976 and 1981. Southall's militancy had been initiated by community organisations of the 1950s, created to help Black workers combat racism in the workplace as well as to deal with discrimination in the community. And as state racism increased, the community fashioned and forged new weapons of struggle. ■ From You Were Black, You Were Out describes the Black condition in the 1950s in Ladbroke Grove a decaying inner area of London. And it was there that grassroots defence, organised against White racist mob attacks in 1958, developed into more general community resistance and the emergence of a number of major 'Black Power' organisations. ■ A Common History focuses on discrimination in employment, particularly the dispute at Imperial Typewriters in Leicester, in 1974. Here Black workers faced opposition not only from the bosses, but also from some trades unions as well as fellow White workers. And the film demonstrates that the outrage of young Black people (many born here), as seen throughout Britain in the dramatic events of the widespread urban uprisings of Summer 1981, was related to the disappointed hopes of their migrant-worker parents. Can be viewed separately or as a series which reveals a coherent history of Black people in British communities from the early 20th century. Suitable for anyone interested in race issues and Black History and especially useable for ages 15 and upwards in schools and colleges and for adult training. Four films of 38 minutes each, colour.

ISBN 0 85001 069 1 ■ £13 (individuals), £20 (Schools and community organisations), £75 Statutory bodies, unions, NGOs. Prices for DVD include postage.

RESOURCES ON RACISM FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

Roots of Racism

The first book in the series covers Europe's early contacts with Black people and the factors that fuelled the original drive for conquest. From the initial dominance of the Spanish and Portuguese, it traces the establishment of a worldwide colonial system and how that in turn fed Europe's economic development – in particular through the industrial revolution. It examines the slave trade and the genesis of modern racism. Roots of Racism provides the historical context and background necessary to understand contemporary race issues.

■ 32 pages, with maps, charts, pictures and a glossary of basic terms ■ Also includes lists of further reading and suggestions for project work.

A4, ISBN 0 85001 023 3 ■ £3.50

Patterns of Racism

The second book in the series traces the different ways that racism and colonialism have developed in various parts of the world and how and why they took on particular forms. Bringing the story up to the twentieth century, it covers North America, Australia and New Zealand, Southern Africa, Latin America, the West Indies and India. It concludes by looking at the type of racist culture that has been fostered by colonialism and imperialism. Patterns of Racism provides essential background reading for the study of such subjects as anti-colonial struggles, the US civil rights movement and the fight against apartheid in South Africa.

■ 48 pages, with maps, pictures and a glossary of terms ■ Also includes lists of further reading and suggestions for project work.

A4, ISBN 0 85001 024 1 ■ £3.50

How Racism Came to Britain

The first cartoon book on racism in Britain, it is highly readable, serious – yet entertaining – and is especially suitable for young people. It examines the origins of racism in slavery and colonialism and shows how it affects Black people in every aspect of their lives in Britain today – in immigration control, employment, housing, education, policing and law enforcement, and the media.

■ 48 pages with over 200 original cartoons ■ Also includes a glossary of basic terms and a list of additional reading.

A4, ISBN 0 85001 029 2 ■ £3.50

BLACK HISTORY & STRUGGLE

From Resistance to Rebellion: Asian and Afro-Caribbean struggles in Britain

by A. Sivanandan

Chronicles and analyses the hitherto unrecorded history of Black people in Britain since the Second World War. Essential for students, race and social studies and black history courses.

A5, 44pp., ISBN 0 85001 030 6, 1986 ■ £1.50

Newham: The forging of a black community

by Campaign Against Racism & Fascism and Newham Monitoring Project

Situates the growth of Newham's working-class black community in the context of industrial development and decline around London's docks. As the white labour movement lost its strength and political focus, Newham developed into a hot-bed of racism and organised fascism. Black people – Asian and African-Caribbean – tell of the struggles they forged over discrimination in housing, at work, in education; tell how fighting crude racial violence brought them together in a community of resistance. Based on original research and interviews with local people.

A5, 72pp. Illus., ISBN 0 951 7625 08, 1991, CARF/NMP ■ £3.50

Southall: The birth of a black community

by Campaign Against Racism & Fascism

On 23 April 1979, a whole community took to the streets to protest at the invasion of its town by the fascists. What were the struggles and experiences of the people of Southall – in work, housing, schools and in their community – that had prepared the way for such a show of common purpose? CARF reveals a pattern of racism and resistance from the 1950s to the 1980s.

A5, 70pp., ISBN 0 85001 022 5, 1981 ■ £3.50

RACISM & FEMINISM

Towards an Anti-Racist Feminism

by Jenny Bourne

Looks at the parallels between racism and women's oppression and the struggles within feminism to overcome its own racism.

A5, 22pp., ISBN 0 85001 027 6, 1982 ■ £1.50

Homelands of the Mind: Jewish feminism and identity politics

by Jenny Bourne

How to hold on to both a Jewish and a feminist identity has been central to many debates in the Western women's movement.

A5, 24pp., ISBN 0 85001 034 9, 1987 ■ £1.50

STUDIES ON RACISM

Outcast England: How schools exclude black children

by Jenny Bourne, Lee Bridges, Chris Searle

The first report on why so many black children are excluded from school and how this can be prevented in the future. This unique study is written from three points of view: that of the school governor, that of the headteacher and that of the excluded child.

A5, 64pp., ISBN 0 85001 046 2, 1994 ■ £3.00

Deadly Silence: Black deaths in custody

The first comprehensive study in Britain on how Black people have died in the custody of the police, prisons and special hospitals. From 1969, when David Oluwale was harassed and beaten by Leeds police officers and drowned in the River Aire, to January 1991, when Delroy McKnight, diagnosed as schizophrenic, systematically sawed through his neck with a piece of glass broken from his Wandsworth cell window and bled to death, there has been one continuous cycle of discrimination, deprivation and death. The IRR unearths the facts of how 75 black people died and makes recommendations as to how deaths in custody could be prevented.

A5, 75pp., ISBN 0 85001 038 1, 1991 ■ £4.00

Community Care: The black experience

The first study to ask Black groups for their experiences and opinions on community care.

A5, 32pp., ISBN 0 85001 042 X, 1993 ■ £1.50

Resource Directory: On 'race' and racism in social work

compiled by Hazel Waters

A bibliographical guide covering elders, families, community care, HIV/AIDS, mental health, probation and criminal justice.

A5, 80pp., ISBN 0 85001 043 8, 1993 ■ £4.00

Policing Against Black People

This major report on policing in Britain demonstrates how a whole underclass of black people, situated in the most deprived areas of the inner city, have been marked out for a particular form of policing.

A5, 184pp., ISBN 0 85001 033 0, 1987 ■ £3.95

EUROPE

Special reports and issues of the European Race Bulletin

Integration, Islamophobia and civil rights in Europe

Finds that, contrary to public perception, the challenge to multiculturalism in Europe comes not from Muslim communities' unwillingness to integrate but from Islamophobia. A one-year study of six European countries (including the UK) carried out by the IRR's researchers looks at the debate about integrating Muslims in Europe from the point of view of Europe's minority ethnic communities. It pinpoints the way that first economic restructuring over the past twenty years and then popular and institutionalised anti-Muslim racism over the past seven years have served to discriminate against and marginalise Muslims from many different communities within Europe.

A5, 28 pp, ISBN 0 85001 068 3, 2008, ■ £5.00

They are Children Too: a study of Europe's deportation policies (Issue 58 and 59)

Analysing 150 cases from across Europe, this shows how unaccompanied minors, children in families of asylum seekers and those whose parents are without the requisite papers, are being damaged by the harsh, target-driven deportation systems which now prevail across the continent. Young people may be sick, traumatised, separated from family members, about to sit exams or still breast-fed, but they are all considered unwanted illegals first and vulnerable children second.

A4, 76 pp., ISBN 0 85001 0675, 2007, ■ £10.00

The deportation machine: Europe, asylum and human rights (Issue 51)

Examines legal issues surrounding the use of force in deportations; the removal of asylum seekers to war zones and torturing states; the denial of humanitarian protection to the seriously ill; the attack on the rights of child asylum seekers; the impact of destitution and pre-deportation detention and the implications of all these factors for doctors, teachers, social workers and other professionals working with asylum seekers.

A4, 80 pp, ISBN 0 85001 0667, 2005, ■ £10.00

Racism: the hidden cost of September 11 (Issue 40)

A special investigation into how anti-terrorist laws across Europe are giving rise to a new wave of popular racism.

A4, 25 pp., ISBN 0 85001 063 2, 2002 ■ £5.00

Europe: the wages of racism

This major report lays bare the measures and mechanisms which turn migrants into 'illegals', and asylum seekers into forced labour. It details the human cost of the traffic in people and the corruption that such exploitation brings to the heart of the European project. Massive cuts in public spending, draconian laws against migrants and asylum seekers, repatriation for settler/migrants already here – this is the other side of European 'integration'.

112pp., ISBN 0 85001 051 9, 1997 ■ £7.00

Europe on Trial

An indictment of the violation of the human rights of refugees and asylum seekers across Europe. It contrasts the lived experiences of would-be refugees with the humanitarian ideals of the Geneva Convention and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and accuses interior and justice ministries of the EU states of conspiring together to keep refugees out of western Europe.

A4, 12pp., 1995 ■ £1.50

Inside Racist Europe

by Liz Fekete and Frances Webber

How Europe uses popular racism, criminalisation and specious 'democracy' to keep out refugees.

A5, 32pp., ISBN 0 85001 042 X, 1993 ■ £4.00

Europe: variations on a theme of racism

This in-depth analysis outlines the specifics of each country's racism, tracing it to its historical and philosophical roots and the country's social formation. It documents the emergence of a new, Pan-European, common market racism which now affects every country in Western Europe.

Includes: The idea of 'Europe' ■ Formation of an authoritarian European state ■ Guide to the far-right ■ EC view on racism and xenophobia ■ Bibliography on immigrants and refugees.

A5, 160pp., ISBN 0 85001 037 3, 1991 ■ £6.00

European Race Bulletin

A quarterly digest on the rise of racism and fascism in Europe, which collates and summarises news reports from papers, magazines, NGOs and campaigns in every European country.

The bulletin provides essential information on: ■ Asylum and immigration ■ Policing and the state ■ Racial violence and fascist parties ■ Persecution of Roma ■ Refugee rights ■ National security.

Subscription rates: £30 print or online subscription. Concessionary rates available on request.

Please note recent back issues are available to buy and are listed below. Older issues are all available to download for free as PDF files, see page 10.

Back issues

Issue 64 - The Italian general election and its aftermath

Examines the Italian general election and its aftermath plus a death in police custody in France.

A4, 20 pp, ISSN 1463 9696, 2008 ■ £5.00

Issue 63 - Spring 2008 - Mobilising against 'foreign criminals': the new electoral politics

Examines the emergence across Europe of a new mobilisation against 'foreign criminals'.

Contains articles on: A survey of local and national elections – September 2007 to March 2008 ■ Italy: emergency laws, summary expulsions and a climate of hate ■ From Villiers-le-Bel to the Plan Banlieue: a catalogue of events (Karen Toma)

A4, 20 pp, ISSN 1463 9696, 2008 ■ £5.00

Issue 62 - Winter 2007 - Cultural cleansing

Summarises anti-mosque campaigns and other initiatives against Islamic schools and religious texts and documents initiatives against religious clothing, before looking in greater detail at some of the measures and statements that stigmatise not only Muslims, but also immigrants, asylum seekers, Roma and foreigners.

Contains articles on: Initiatives against mosques, minarets, Islamic schools and the Qur'an ■ Local and national measures and initiatives on religious clothing ■ Islamophobia and xenophobia.

A4, 36 pp, ISSN 1463 9696, 2008 ■ £5.00

Issue 61 - Autumn 2007

Contains an in-depth report on the election material of the extreme-Right Austrian Freedom Party (FPÖ) and country round-ups on anti-terrorism and human rights.

A4, 32 pp, ISSN 1463 9696, 2007 ■ £5.00

Issue 60 - Summer 2007 - Election Special

A survey of relevant results and themes in national and local elections from October 2006 to May 2007 in a selection of European countries. Provides in depth articles on the recent elections in France and the Netherlands and country summaries covering other recent elections in Europe.

A4, 40 pp, ISSN 1463 9696, 2007 ■ £5.00

Issue 57 - Autumn 2006 - Islamophobia, xenophobia and the climate of hate

Documents examples of populist campaigns against mosques, Muslim meeting places and even burial places in Denmark, France, Germany, Greece, Italy, Spain and the Netherlands. A section on 'national security, anti-terrorist measures and civil rights' draws attention to the rise of racial and religious profiling within criminal justice systems. Provides country summaries covering eighty of the most serious racist and extreme-Right-inspired crimes that have occurred across Europe in the first eight months of 2006.

A4, 40 pp., ISSN 1463 9696, 2006 ■ £5.00

Issue 56 - Summer 2006 - The 'Mediterranean Solution'

Argues that under cover of combating human trafficking, EU countries are rescinding the rights of boat people travelling from Africa to claim asylum in southern European countries. The EU is further militarising its coastal borders, entering into new repatriation agreements with North African countries and developing a new complex of detention centres to extend from Malta, Cyprus, Lampedusa and the Canary Islands, to Libya, Tunisia, Morocco, Mauritania and beyond.

Includes: Racism and Islamophobia in France: the far Right and the grassroots (Tim Cleary) and country summaries on anti-immigration parties and electoral politics, Immigration, citizenship and the 'integration' debate.

A4, 36 pp, ISSN 1463 9696, 2006, ■ £5.00

Issue 55 - Spring 2006 - Asylum: from deterrence to criminalisation (by Frances Webber)

A major review of developments in European asylum law from 2002-2005. Draws attention to the threat posed to international conventions by the adoption of a penal framework to prevent the arrival of would-be refugees in Europe and to aid the departure of failed asylum seekers. The review, which covers over one hundred cases, examines a number of prosecutions brought against individuals who, through their humanitarianism, have sought to assist asylum seekers or undocumented migrants. Human rights activists, lawyers and religious leaders are among those who have been prosecuted for such innocuous and unthreatening activities as housing the destitute, exposing degrading conditions in detention centres, or advising those under threat of deportation of their legal and civil rights.

A4, 20 pp, ISSN 1463 9696, 2006, ■ £5.00

Issue 37 - A special report on Xeno-racism

A special investigation which charts the emergence of a corrosive xeno-racism in the ways that European governments demonise asylum seekers as bogus, illegal and welfare scroungers. Detailed country by country case studies examine how xeno-racism undermines race relations, leading to a growth in neo-Nazi parties, hotspots of racial violence and the convergence of the new racism with existing racist hostility towards older, settled black and migrant communities.

A4, 33 pp., ISBN 085001 059 4, 2001 ■ £5.00

RACE & CLASS

Race & Class

A journal on racism, empire and globalisation

Editor: Arun Kundnani. Advisory Editors: A. Sivanandan and Hazel Waters

The foremost English language journal on racism and imperialism in the world today: for more than three decades, it has established a reputation for the breadth of its analysis, its global outlook and its multidisciplinary approach. Race & Class contains contributions from scientists, artists, novelists, journalists, political leaders, activists and scholars. Race & Class covers: globalisation ■ the 'war on terror' ■ Islamophobia ■ refugees and migration ■ European racism ■ culture and identity ■ Indigenous peoples ■ Black history ■ and much more.

Race & Class is available on subscription from Sage Publications ■ Quarterly ■ 120 pages ■ Four major articles ■ Commentary section ■ Book reviews ■ Archive, online access and article search available at <http://rac.sagepub.com>

Individual Subscription, Combined (Print & E-access) £29. Single issues can be ordered directly from the IRR, see below for a selection, or you can download a full list of available back issues at: http://www.irr.org.uk/pdf/rac_backissuelist.pdf. Single back issues are available directly from the IRR for £7 unless otherwise stated.

Special issues

UK: Racism and the state 2007

In this special edition, leading Black and anti-racist activists, campaigners and scholars chart the new parameters of state racism in the UK today. On 16 September 2006, the Institute of Race Relations (IRR) held a conference on 'Racism, Liberty and the War on Terror' and speeches are reproduced here. Includes articles on:

From Good Friday to Good Relations: sectarianism, racism and the Northern Ireland state (Robbie McVeigh and Bill Rolston) ■ Integrationism: the politics of anti-Muslim racism (Arun Kundnani) ■ Racism, liberty and the war on terror (A. Sivanandan) ■ The historical context (Gareth Peirce) ■ State policies and programmes in the 'war on terror' (Tony Bunyan, David Rose, Victoria Brittain and Asim Qureshi) ■ The war on terror's impact on the community (Anne Gray, Cilius Victor, Shobha Das, Beena Faridi) ■ The attack on multiculturalism: a discussion (Herman Ouseley, Salma Yaqoob and A. Sivanandan) ■ Linking the struggles (Salma Yaqoob ■ Bristol: 'civilising' the inner city (Matt Clement) ■ Driven to despair: asylum deaths in the UK (Harmit Athwal and Jenny Bourne)

A5, 120pp., ISBN 1-4129-4545-3. Vol. 48, no. 4, April-June 2007 ■ £7

Caribbean Trajectories: 200 years on (editors Aaron Kamugisha and Alissa Trotz)

Surveying the contemporary Caribbean - economically, politically and culturally - this special edition argues that slavery and colonialism have left the region in the hands of narrow elites, which consider large sections of their own populations to be 'disposable'. Includes articles on:

Development, change and society: an interview with Kari Levitt (David Austin) ■ The coloniality of citizenship in the contemporary Anglophone Caribbean (Aaron Kamugisha) ■ Between the devil and the deep blue sea: mercantilism and free trade (Cecilia A. Green) ■ Guyanese Amerindian epistemology: the gift from a pacifist insurgency (George Mentore) ■ Red Thread: the politics of hope in Guyana (Alissa Trotz) ■ The war on human trafficking in the Caribbean (Kamala Kempadoo) ■ 'Disposable populations': the CSME, HIV and AIDS (Robert Carr and R. Anthony Lewis) ■ Multiracialism as more than the sum of ethnicities (Sara Abraham) ■ Haiti and America Latina: it is as it always was (Kevin Pina) ■ Haiti: we must kill the bandits – a review (Isabel Macdonald) ■ Small farming and radical imaginations in the Caribbean today (Tony Weis) ■ A Caribbean common law (Tracy Robinson) ■ Survival stories: challenges facing youth in Trinidad and Tobago (Gabrielle Jamela Hosein)

A5, 130pp., ISBN 1-4129-45445-3. Vol. 49, no. 2, October-December 2007 ■ £7

Cedric Robinson and the philosophy of black resistance

A special issue dedicated to one of the world's outstanding thinkers on the history of Black struggle. Professor Robinson, one of the most challenging Black academics in the US. This publication brings together tributes, analyses of his work, reviews and interviews with him from students, colleagues and his teachers. It is a vibrant celebration of the influence of Robinson's historical method and philosophy in creating both a committed scholarship and a progressive Black tradition within academia.

Includes articles on: Black studies and the scholarship of Cedric Robinson (Darryl C. Thomas) ■ Cedric Robinson's anthropology of Marxism (Avery F. Gordon) ■ Geniuses of resistance: feminist consciousness and the Black radical tradition (H. L. T. Quan) ■ Racially subordinate labour within global contexts: Robinson and Hopkins re-examined (Kelvin Santiago-Valles) ■ Reflections on Black Marxism (Travis Tatum) ■ Twenty-five years of the Third World News Review (Elizabeth Robinson) ■ The future of radical scholarship (Avery F. Gordon) ■ Writing in solidarity: the new generation (Tiffany Herard) ■ Africana studies and the research collective (W. F. Santiago – Valles) ■ On Cedric Robinson and Black Marxism: a view from the US academy (Brenda Gayle Plummer) ■ Bibliography.

A5, ISBN 0 7619 7490 3, October-December 2005 ■ £7

The politics of fear: civil society and the security state

A special issue of Race & Class explores how the 'war on terror' is influencing key institutions of civil society and reshaping race policy, development programmes, the justice system, military strategy, international law, and debate in academia. Includes articles on:

Anti-Muslim racism and the European security state (Liz Fekete) ■ The birth of public order policy (Magnus Hörnqvist) ■ Development and the 'global war on terror' (Antonio Tujan, Audrey Gaughran and Howard Mollett) ■ Sovereignty vs. human rights or sovereignty and human rights? (Justin Conlon) ■ The new American McCarthyism: policing thought about the Middle East (Joel Beinin) ■ Wired for war: military technology and the politics of fear (Arun Kundnani) ■ Anti-Semitism or anti-criticism? – Jenny Bourne.

A5, 140pp. ISBN 0 7619 4425 7, July-September 2004 ■ £7

Black History: the present in the past

Covers literature, theatre, music, black thinkers and recent debates in the academy and the community crucial to the shaping of Black History.

Includes articles on: Ira Aldridge: original research on the experience of the American actor on the English stage during the 19th century and his struggle for recognition despite racial hostility ■ C.L.R. James: his ideas of self-emancipation, gleaned from maroon history and applied in anti-colonial organising of the 1930s ■ Cheikh Anta Diop: the battle of ideas to establish the Africanness of ancient Egyptian civilisation ■ Kalamu Ya Salaam: how this New Orleans blues musician and filmmaker harnessed to his art traditions stretching from slavery to Black power ■ West Africa: Peter Fryer uncovers a 2,500-year-old account of its music ■ Black Canadian Education: a community campaign against the presentation of black people in To Kill a Mocking Bird.

A5, 120pp., ISBN 0 7619 7489 X, July-September 2003 ■ £7.00

Truth? (edited by Bill Rolston)

Contains articles on: the Chilean truth process, the expectations of South Africa's Truth and Reconciliation Commission, the experience of South African victim support group Khulumani, the Guatemalan experience of seeking justice for victims, the truth process in the North of Ireland and the search for truth by families of the Lockerbie victims, the Hillsborough disaster and the victims of deaths in state custody.

A5, 140pp., ISBN 0 7619 7458 7, July-September 2002 ■ £7.00

The Gentle Revolutionary: essays in honour of Jan Carew (edited by Joy Gleason Carew & Hazel Waters)

Dedicated to black novelist and anti-colonial activist and thinker Jan Carew. Explores Guyanese-born Carew's unique contributions – to creating an indigenous Caribbean literature, in the construction of black identity in Canada and in chronicling the history of pre-Colombian America.

Contains articles and tributes by: Dennis Brutus ■ Roy Heath ■ Ken Ramchand ■ Cecil Foster ■ Frank Birbalsingh ■ Clinton Cox ■ Nancy Singham ■ Richard Sobel ■ A. Sivanandan ■ Joy Gleason Carew and others.

A5, 92pp., ISBN 0 7619 7489 0, January-March 2002 ■ £7.00

The Three Faces of British Racism

Exposes the racism in government policy, institutions and popular culture. The report focuses on asylum policy and reform of the criminal justice system as the main areas in which the promise held out by the Macpherson Report have been squandered.

Contributions on: racism and globalism ■ racism in the criminal justice system ■ the Human Rights Act ■ the Terrorism Act ■ the emergence of xeno-racism; Macpherson and institutional racism ■ popular racism against asylum seekers ■ Uprisings in the north of England ■ racially motivated murders ■ deaths in custody ■ asylum seekers in Glasgow and Leicester.

A5, 140pp., ISBN 0 7619 6699 4, October-December 2001 ■ £7.00

Race Myths – Historical Truths

■ Race, empire and education: teaching racism ■ Putting on 'Uncle Tom' on the Victorian stage ■ 'This is not a rebel song': the Irish conflict and popular music ■ The forgotten architect: Cox, Wallerstein and world-system theory ■ UK: Refugees from globalism ■ Plus book reviews.

A5, 110pp., ISBN 0 7619 6696 X, January-March 2001 ■ £7.00

A World to Win: essays in honour of A. Sivanandan (edited by Colin Prescod & Hazel Waters)

This special double issue focuses on the work of one of today's seminal thinkers on Marxism, imperialism and racism, who is also a key figure in the black movement, an often trenchant critic of the Left and an award-winning novelist.

A5, 240 pp., ISBN 0 85001 057 8, July-December 1999 ■ £10.00

The Threat of Globalism

Contains articles on: Globalism and the Left ■ Information capitalism ■ The effect of globalisation on the working class ■ Economics of globalisation ■ The prisons economy ■ Biotechnology ■ MAI ■ South East Asian crisis.

Contributions from: Walden Bello ■ John Berger ■ Angela Davis ■ James Davis ■ Jim Davis ■ Liz Fekete ■ Ruth Gilmore ■ Avery Gordon ■ Jerry Harris ■ Jonathan King ■ Arun Kundnani ■ Neil Lazarus ■ William Robinson ■ A.Sivanandan ■ Doreen Stabinsky.

A5, 208pp., ISBN 0 85001 054 3, October-March 1998 ■ £9.00

DISTRIBUTED BY THE IRR

Catching History on the Wing: Race, Culture and Globalisation

by A. Sivanandan

Part of Pluto's 21st birthday series, Get Political, which brings essential political writing in a range of fields to a new audience. The articles selected span A. Sivanandan's entire career and are chosen for their relevance to today's most pressing issues. Included is a complete bibliography of Sivanandan's writings and an introduction by Colin Prescod (chair of the IRR), which sets the writings in context.

272pp., ISBN 9780745328348, 2008, PLUTO PRESS ■ £14.99

When Memory Dies

by A. Sivanandan

A three-generational novel of a Sri Lankan family's search for coherence and continuity in a country broken by colonial occupation and riven by ethnic wars. Saha looks for that coherence in a return to traditional values, Rajan in a quest for modernity that takes him to the mother country, and Vijay in a fight for socialism that ends in terror. But through the travail of their lives emerges the possibility of another future.

412pp., ISBN 1 900850 01X, 1997, ARCADIA BOOKS ■ £8.99

Where the Dance Is

by A. Sivanandan

A collection of short stories, each story is a modern mystery tale, in which the reader becomes the detective tracking down these characters – from the lovelorn goat-herd in a Sri Lankan village to the aspiring Hampstead actress – who both move and delight, revealing as much about us as about themselves.

154pp., ISBN 1 900850 192, 2000, ARCADIA BOOKS ■ £10.99

The End of Tolerance - Racism in 21st century Britain

by Arun Kundnani

Is Britain becoming a more racist society? Arun Kundnani looks behind the media hysteria to show how multicultural Britain is under attack by government policies and vitriolic press campaigns that play upon fear and encourage racism. A new form of racism is emerging, exacerbated by the attacks of 9/11 and 7/7. It is based on a systematic failure to understand the causes of forced migration, global terrorism and social segregation. The result is a climate of hatred, especially against Muslims and asylum seekers, and the erosion of human rights. Communities are more divided than ever. Yet the government presses ahead with flawed policies and anti-terrorist legislation that creates further resentment, alienation and criminalisation.

240pp., ISBN 9780745326450, 2007, PLUTO PRESS ■ £15.99

A Suitable Enemy: Racism, migration and Islamophobia in Europe

by Liz Fekete * Available in March 2009 *

A Suitable Enemy draws on sixteen years of research to present a comprehensive overview of EU immigration, asylum, race and security policies. Fekete argues that at the same time as the EU introduces selective migration policies, it closes its borders against asylum seekers who were the first victims of the growth of the security state which now embraces Muslims. It explores the way in which anti-terrorist legislation has been used to evict undesirable migrants, how deportation policies commodify and de-humanise the most vulnerable and how these go hand in hand with evolving forms of racism, particularly Islamophobia. At the heart of the book is an examination of xeno-racism – a non-colour coded form of institutionalised racism – where migrants who do not assimilate, or who are believed to be incapable of assimilation, are excluded.

240pp., ISBN 9780745327921, 2009, PLUTO PRESS ■ £15.99

FREE DOWNLOADABLE RESOURCES

Briefing papers

IRR Briefing Paper No.1 - Working with the media

http://www.irr.org.uk/pdf/IRR_Briefing_No.1.pdf (pdf file, 192kb)

IRR Briefing Paper No.2 - In defence of multiculturalism

http://www.irr.org.uk/pdf/IRR_Briefing_No.2.pdf (pdf file, 72kb)

IRR Briefing Paper No.3 - Community responses to the War on Terror

http://www.irr.org.uk/pdf/IRR_Briefing_No.3.pdf (pdf file, 88kb)

IRR Briefing Paper No.4 - Asylum deaths: what to do next

http://www.irr.org.uk/pdf/IRR_Briefing_No.4.pdf (pdf file, 232kb)

Driven to desperate measures

Report on the deaths of 221 asylum seekers and undocumented migrants who have died either in the UK or attempting to reach the UK in the past seventeen years.

<http://www.irr.org.uk/2006/september/ha000013.html> (pdf file, 401kb)

Web based factfiles

Roll call of deaths of asylum seekers and undocumented migrants, 2005 onwards

<http://www.irr.org.uk/2006/december/ak000016.html>

Roll call of deaths of asylum seekers and undocumented migrants, 2002-2004

<http://www.irr.org.uk/2006/december/ak000015.html>

Roll call of deaths of asylum seekers and undocumented migrants, 1989-2001

<http://www.irr.org.uk/2006/december/ak000014.html>

Racially Motivated Murders (Known or Suspected) 2000 onwards

<http://www.irr.org.uk/2002/november/ak000008.html>

Racially Motivated Murders (Known or Suspected) 1991-1999

<http://www.irr.org.uk/2002/november/ak000002.html>

Black Deaths in Custody

<http://www.irr.org.uk/2002/november/ak000006.html>

European Race Bulletin back issues

These are available to download for free. Printed copies can be purchased directly from the IRR for £5.

Issue 54 - Winter 2005/Spring 2006 - France inflamed: riots and reactions (by Tim Cleary)

At both the level of policy and of popular discourse, the riots in the deprived French banlieues in October and November 2005 have had reverberations across the EU. And questions of integration and segregation have been discussed in ways that place security rather than justice at the centre of that debate. In the months, and perhaps even in the years to come, the French riots will be seen as a watershed in the struggle to shape a more just agenda for young people of Arab or African descent right across Europe. Provides a factual, chronological report on the riots and related responses.

http://www.irr.org.uk/pdf/ERB_54.pdf (pdf file, 224 kb)

Issue 53 - Winter 2005 - Fighting fascism, preserving democracy

Looking at the growth of racist and far-Right parties in seventeen EU countries, and Norway and Switzerland. Building on recent research from the European Monitoring Centre on Racism and Xenophobia, This issue critiques government-led anti-fascist programmes, examines official responses to racist crimes and documents the ways in which the electoral campaigns of political parties are pandering to racism and extremism.

http://www.irr.org.uk/pdf/ERB_53.pdf (pdf file, 256 kb)

Issue 52 - The integration debate

A special issue containing features on: 'Speech crime' and deportation, Immigration, Integration and the politics of fear and Developments within extreme-right and anti-immigration parties. This issue also contains a table of deportation cases.

http://www.irr.org.uk/pdf/ERB_52.pdf (pdf file, 224 kb)

Issue 50 - Notes on the killing of Theo van Gogh in the Netherlands

Examines the killing of Theo van Gogh in an extended essay and also has country by country reports.

http://www.irr.org.uk/pdf/ERB_50.pdf (pdf file, 200 kb)

Issue 49

Country round-ups on: race and electoral politics, the politics of assimilation, police and criminal justice and racism and fascism.

http://www.irr.org.uk/pdf/ERB_49.pdf (pdf file, 216 kb)

Issue 48 - The impact of anti-terrorist laws on race and crime policy

Examines Europe's anti-terrorism laws with essays on National identity and the move to monoculturalism, Racial Profiling and the War on Terror and an update on the impact of anti-terrorism measures on human rights in Europe.

http://www.irr.org.uk/pdf/ERB_48.pdf (pdf file, 352 kb)

Issue 47 - Anti-terrorism and human rights

Considers the framework of global security laws, targeted sanctions and extradition, expulsion and deportation.

http://www.irr.org.uk/pdf/ERB_47.pdf (pdf file, 384 kb)

Issue 45/46 - Monitoring maritime border controls

Report on EU-sponsored border control enterprises which concludes that ‘while great emphasis is placed on ‘detect and deter’ missions, completely inadequate resources are given over to rescue missions and the need to save lives’.

http://www.irr.org.uk/pdf/ERB_45and46.pdf (pdf file, 1.4 mb - large file)

Issue 44 - Death at the Border – who is to blame?

Contains the second part of the essay ‘From Refugee Protection to Managed Migration’ and examines the EU Border Control Programme, which was introduced with scant regard to refugee protection and human rights.

http://www.irr.org.uk/pdf/ERB_44.pdf (pdf file, 1.3 mb - large file)

Issue 43 - From refugee protection to managed migration: the EU’s border control programme

A special report examining the EU Council’s new Border Control Programme in relation to the EU’s obligations to asylum seekers under international law. It also explores the ways in which the EU’s commitment to the ‘War Against Terrorism’ is fashioning its approach to refugees.

http://www.irr.org.uk/pdf/ERB_43.pdf (pdf file, 1.3 mb - large file)

Issue 42 - Asylum and immigration special

A special issue examining asylum and immigration.

http://www.irr.org.uk/pdf/ERB_42.pdf (pdf file, 1.2 mb - large file)

Issue 41 - The electoral extreme-Right –who gains?

A special issue examining extreme-right gains in elections across Europe. Also includes: A Letter from the Netherlands and in depth article on ‘The Rostock-Lichtenhagen pogrom: ten years on’. Plus country round-ups on: the integration debate, racism and fascism etc.

http://www.irr.org.uk/pdf/ERB_41.pdf (pdf file, 1.4 mb - large file)

Issue 39

Country round-ups on: racism and fascism, police, etc.

http://www.irr.org.uk/pdf/ERB_39.pdf (pdf file, 624 kb)

Issue 38 - Crimes of NASS

A special report from the European Race Audit on the UK’s dispersal system which challenges the National Asylum Support Service to review its procedures and policies vis à vis racial harassment in the dispersal system which is meant to provide a safe haven for refugees subjected to racial violence.

http://www.irr.org.uk/pdf/ERB_38.pdf (pdf file, 3 mb - large file)

Issue 36

Country round-ups on: racism and fascism.

http://www.irr.org.uk/pdf/ERB_36.pdf (pdf file, 2.1 mb - large file)

Issue 35 - Extreme-Right violence – what is to be done?

A special investigation from looking at the German government’s approach to combating racist and extreme-Right violence.

http://www.irr.org.uk/pdf/ERB_35.pdf (pdf file, 616 kb)

Issue 33/34 - The dispersal of xenophobia: A special report on the UK and Ireland

A special report on xenophobia against asylum seekers. Plus also included in this issue: The FPO in the Austrian government, The pogrom at El Ejido, West African deportation route exposed, Institutionalised racism in Switzerland, Police killings in France and Greece, Europe needs immigrant workers, Asylum detention in Italy and the UK, Africans march against Irish racism.

http://www.irr.org.uk/pdf/ERB_33and34.pdf (pdf file, 2.8 mb - large file)

Issue 32 - A special report from the Netherlands

A special report on the Populist anti-asylum movement born at Kollum. Plus country round-ups on: racism and fascism, asylum and immigration, police etc.

http://www.irr.org.uk/pdf/ERB_32.pdf (pdf file, 3.3 mb - large file)

Issue 31 - The extreme-Right in local and central government

A special report on the extreme-Right in local and central government. Plus country round-ups on: racism and fascism, asylum and immigration, police etc.

http://www.irr.org.uk/pdf/ERB_31.pdf (pdf file, 2.5 mb - large file)

Issue 30 - Lessons from Europe

A special report on how the UK government's asylum proposals will create racism and social exclusion. Plus country round-ups on: racism and fascism, asylum and immigration, police etc.

http://www.irr.org.uk/pdf/ERB_30.pdf (pdf file, 3.3 mb - large file)

Issue 29 - Islamic militants in 'political show trial'

A special report on France's anti-terrorist laws. Plus country round-ups on: racism and fascism, asylum and immigration, police etc.

http://www.irr.org.uk/pdf/ERB_29.pdf (pdf file, 2.4mb- large file)

Issue 28 - Far-Right electoral breakthrough in east Germany

A special report on DVU campaigns in Saxony-Anhalt. Plus country round-ups on: racism and fascism, asylum and immigration, police etc.

http://www.irr.org.uk/pdf/ERB_28.pdf (pdf file, 688 kb)

Most of the publications listed here are available from the IRR's website. Alternatively use the attached order form.

.....
Race & Class

Subscriptions are handled by Sage Publications. Tick this box if you would like to receive details on how to subscribe to Race & Class:

Alternatively you can contact Sage directly: Sage Publications, 1 Oliver's Yard, 55 City Road, London EC1Y 1SP. Tel: 020 7324 8500. Web: www.sagepub.co.uk Email: subscription@sagepub.co.uk

.....

Please tick:

I enclose a cheque or postal order - in pounds sterling or US dollars drawn on US bank - for the amount of £ or US$ Make cheques payable to the Institute of Race Relations

.....

Please charge £ or US$ to my Visa / Delta/ Mastercard.

My card number is:

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

My card expiry date is:

		/
--	--	---	--	--

Today's date:

		/
--	--	---	--	--

Signature: _____

.....
Delivery address: (please print):

Name/Organisation:

Address:

City:

Postcode

Country:

Email:

.....
Return this order form with payment to: Institute of Race Relations, 2 - 6 Leeke Street, London WC1X 9HS