

BME HEALTH AND SOCIAL CARE QUESTION TIME!

16th MARCH

2010

THE AFIYA TRUST MANIFESTO

THE AFIYA TRUST

Come and listen to what representatives from the key main parties have to say on tackling race inequalities in health and social care

This free all day event will take place at The Resource Centre, 356 Holloway Road, London N7

After our recent successful consultation on health and social care issues The Afiya Trust will be launching its own Manifesto and inviting key party spokespersons to find out what their plans and commitments are in tackling racial inequality and promoting the well-being of BME communities.

The day will include workshops on:

- ◆ Mapping – Identifying issues affecting BME health and social care organisations
- ◆ World class commissioning – how do we mainstream race equality into commissioning processes?
- ◆ Social marketing – how do we ensure campaigns address BME issues?
- ◆ Holding the NHS to account – How do we encourage active BME participation and involvement in the NHS?
- ◆ The Afiya Trust – Building a healthy communities Hub

We would like you to come along and give your views and opinions on these important issues that will impact BME communities and the third sector in the future.

This free all day event (10.00am—4.00pm) will take place at The Resource Centre,

356 Holloway Road,

London N7 6PA
